Post Office in New Home Monday

Moving Day Saturday for Local Staff

Open Monday in New Building on North Palm Canyon

Moving Day, July 30th, for the Palm Springs Post office. With the new post office building in the 800 block on North Palm Canyon drive being rushed to completion this week, employees of the post office are preparing to move to their new quarters Saturday.

The job of moving equipment and fixtures must be completed over the weekend, and be ready to serve the public in the new building Monday morning.

BECAUSE NEW FIXTURES are not ready, all present fixtures will be temporarily installed in the new building. The new counters and windows, which are styled along the lines of bank windows, are now being tailor-made for the new building and will be installed as soon as they arrive from the manufacturer.

The building is some 600 square feet larger than the present quarters, and will contain 7,772 square feet of space. Many new features have been incorporated into the structure, including separate room for box holders, which can be left open after the business part of the office is closed at night; loading ramp in the rear of the building for post office trucks as well as a special ramp for loading and unloading of the huge new HPO's or high-way post offices and a new development in fluorescent lighting which has been installed in the no-window building.

HEATING AND COOLING as well as air-conditioning will be accomplished through the use of two huge units installed in the building, with two 24-inch exhaust fans installed in the ceiling.

Another new feature is a special service window at the rear of the building for firms that have heavy mailing.

Harold J. Hicks lessee of the new building, plans to add a new shopping center, next to the post office, some time in the fall.

PHYSICAL FITNESS TESTS were given applicants for police force positions Saturday on the Palm Springs high school grounds. Twenty-one men took the tests, oral and physical, and only five passed. The physical test is one of the most rigid given in the state. Pictured above are just three of the many events on which applicants were scored. First, the carrying of a 100-pound sack up and down a 20-foot ladder; second, high jumping and the candidate must better 40 inches; and third, rope climbing, at which the applicant must climb up and down a free-hanging 15-foot rope.

FATE OF 1000 PALMS SCHOOL UP AUGUST 11

By FRED C. WEIGEL

Whether the one-room, one-teacher school at Thousand Palms will be continued, abandoned, or improved, will be decided by board of trustees of the Palm Springs Unified School district at their next regular meeting August 11.

"Although trustees must have some idea as to how they will handle the problem by August 4 meeting (called for a budget hearing), no arguments will be voiced at that time," said Dr. Wallace Mueller, superintendent of schools. "The amount of money needed to run the 1000 Palms school does not necessarily have to be budgeted because, if necessary, it can be taken out of the unappropriated reserve."

DR MUELLER with Ray Sorum, president of the board of education, held a public meeting at the Thousand Palms school Thursday night, at which time citizens of that community were emphatic in their disapproval of the proposal to close the school. They presented a petition at the hearing, signed by 89 residents of the area asking that the school be retained.

Among the reasons for continuation of the school were such factors as "without a school, the community would become a ghost town," and, the people believe "that the children might have to wait long hours after school before a school bus was available to return them to their homes."

ON THE OTHER SIDE, there were figuratively hundreds of reasons for the abandonment of the school, school administrators said.

Among these reasons which they advanced were factors concerning:

Cost: The one-room school, with a teacher, now costs $5,000. If the educators approved a plan submitted by residents of the area for a class of first, second and third graders only, the cost would go up $6,000, or $800 to $1,000 per student.

Attendance: A big factor in determining the value of a school is the average daily attendance. Thousand Palms school had an ADA of 21 students last year. At the peak of the season, January 1, 1955, there were 26 students attending the school. The first grade had eight students; second grade, four students; third grade, six students; fourth grade, three students, and fifth grade, 5 students.

School and Site: The site, less than two acres, is inadequate and not in the best location; the school's water and toilet facilities are inadequate; and the relative isolation of the school (near a heavily traveled truck highway and railroad tracks) from the administrative offices in Palm Springs, 10 miles south, poses a problem of supervision.

Teacher's Salary: Though citizens of 1000 Palms contended that the school board has discriminated against them in the matter of teachers' salaries, the teacher at the school draws a

"Benny" Won't Talk, Neither Will He Listen to Invitations

"Benny" the wandering talk-blotter as being purplish black in color with a yellow bill. Three days later Mrs. Ruth Hardy, city councilwoman, called police to tell them that she thought "Benny" was down at her place, the Ingleside Inn.

The bird in a tree on the Inn grounds answered the description. So a policeman went to the spot. Sure enough, he said, "It's Benny."

The policeman mounted a ladder warily, speaking enticing words to "Benny." But just as he got near, the bird took off, never saying a word.

The search still goes on.

Outline Plans for Two Additional Parking Districts

Property owners in the area affected by plans for a new downtown parking district met with city councilmen and city officials at city hall Tuesday afternoon to hear details of the proposal.

Appraisal of two sites considered was ordered by council at a meeting earlier this month.

One of the sites is on Indian avenue known as the old Safeway parking lot. It is just south of Amado road and will accommodate 75 cars.

THE OTHER SITE is on Palm See PARKING, Page 7a

Five Qualify as Candidates for Police Force Position

They've got to be agile and alert physically as well as mentally if they want to be members of the Palm Springs police force.

And 21 candidates for positions on the force answered questions in a written examination Friday night at Welwood Murray public library and then on Saturday went through a course of gymnastics and other tests to show their agility and physical fitness.

It was the regular examination to fill the police eligibility list and of the 21, the top five were selected to go on the list.

One of them will be chosen by Police Chief A. F. Kettmann within a few days for a place on the force to fill a vacancy.

Of the 21 candidates who took the written examination and then went through the physical tests the next day, the following qualified as the top five.

Eugene Brinton, Banning.

Robert Keagy, Carlsbad.

Joseph McWilliams, River-

Robert L. Davis, Banning.

Richard Sherwood, Beaumont.

From this number, Chief Kettmann expects to select a member of the force within the week.

Dismiss Charge Against Strebe

Jury trial of George Strebe, owner of the Doll House, charged with conspiracy to operate a bordello at Morongo Lodge, was ordered off the San Bernardino court calendar by Judge Archie D. Mitchell yesterday.

The action was taken following notice that Strebe's attorney, A. N. Cheladen, is appealing to the state supreme court for a writ of prohibition to block the prosecution.

Strebe was scheduled to go to trial yesterday. He had previously entered a plea of not guilty, after superior court Judge Jesse W. Curtis Jr. denied a motion to dismiss the charge on June 17.

Work to Start on New City Hall at Airport in Spring

Work is progressing on final revised plans for the new city hall to be built just north of the present municipal buildings on McCallum way and actual construction of the new civic center is expected to be under way next Spring.

Upon receipt of word last week of final approval by the Civil Aeronautical Authority of use of the land at the airport for city hall purposes, redrafting of the plans was begun by the architectural firm of Clark, Frey and Chambers.

When the plans are completed and given final approval by city council, preparations for start of building the new center will be expedited.

It is estimated that the city offices may be moved into their new home either late in 1956 or early in 1957.

Decision to build the new city hall to house all municipal offices and council chambers plus possibly a courtroom for the Palm Springs Judicial district, ends months of study of proposed sites.

Judge Dismisses Nathanson Case Election Charge

Charges against Councilman Jerry Nathanson that he used city property for his own purposes in the 1954 council election were dismissed yesterday afternoon in Judge Russell Waite's superior court at Riverside on motion of Deputy District Attorney W. B. Gustavson.

The motion was based on a recent ruling of the fourth district appellate court that Nathanson had no wrongful intent in his action.

THE MOTION TO DISMISS was made because of insufficiency of evidence according to Section 1385 of the state penal code.

Judge Waite said also that the minutes of the court should show that in addition to dismissal on the appellate court ruling, the case was dismissed because of gross violation of the defendant's constitutional rights before the grand jury by the district attorney's office.

THE CASE WAS brought against the councilman shortly after last year's election when opponents went to the grand See CHARGES, Page 7a

STATE OFFICER TO INVESTIGATE JOBLESS PAY COMPLAINTS HERE

Herbert Hass, secretary of the Palm Springs Area Democratic club which, with the Retail Merchants Division of the Chamber of Commerce, took a leading part in bringing light an unemployment compensation situation which adversely affected local seasonal jobless, this week said that a solution of the problem seems nearer.

He was informed in a letter from William Burkett, director of the California department of employment, that a personal investigation of the Palm Springs situation by the office of John Rood, Los Angeles, would be made in the near future.

ROOD IS MANAGER of the department's operations in the southern area of the state.

"I am directing Mr. Rood to thoroughly investigate the circumstances referred to in your letter (asserted discrimination against local unemployed because of the resort nature of Palm Springs) and take such action as may be indicated in his findings," Burkett wrote Hass.

"I am also asking Mr. Rood to make arrangements for a member of his staff to call on you . . . to explore this matter further and to obtain such information as you may have regarding specific instances."

BURKETT'S LETTER to Hass indicated a brightening picture in the unemployment compensation situation which arose when seasonal workers here, unemployed during the slack Summer months, said they were denied unemployment pay by the Indio office of the department of employment.

"The availability of a seasonal unemployed individual ordinarily is not affected by his restriction to the community of his permanent residence, provided he does not otherwise restrict himself as to acceptable employment," Burkett wrote.

BURKETT'S LETTER to Hass was in reply to two letters the local club had addressed to Gov. Goodwin J. Knight calling attention to an asserted discriminatory situation here.

Burkett further wrote that "where a claimant (for unemployment compensation) is a permanent resident in a locality of seasonal employment, in which there is a limited market during the off-season, the claimant's unemployment may not be deemed due to a withdrawal from the labor market."

ADRIAN ROSEN, head of the Retail Merchants Division of the Chamber of Commerce, which has been interesting itself in the situation, and Hass, both said that Burkett's letter contradicts activities of the Indio state employment office.

Rosen said the Indio office had been too strict in its inter-

City's New Sign Measure May Face Test in Courts

Palm Springs' recently amended sign ordinance which prevents signs posting rates, faces a court test as result of action by city officials Tuesday in issuing a citation to James and Mary Carlin, owners of El Tram on charges of violating the law. The Carlins have refused to remove their sign. City Attorney Jerry Bunker said yesterday that a complaint will be issued today if the sign is still up and that an electrician will be employed by police to remove it.

The Carlins have turned the case over to their attorney who plans to make a test case of the law, it was indicated. Several more citations have been issued but all of the others said in violation of the act have agreed to remove their signs, Bunker said.

"The sign ordinance prohibiting rate signs is right in line with the city council's policy of reducing hazards in the community and incidentally, providing for beautification of the city," Bunker added.

By BILL RASHALL

On vacation in the land of sky blue waters: Minnesota—the state which claims to have 10,000 lakes.

As we rolled northward and then eastward, it seemed as though the entire populace of this nation was rolling westward! If this traffic on the highway plus those who are traveling by air and rail is any kind of a barometer of the numbers that will be vacationing during Winter months, Palm Springs has in store for it the greatest season ever.

"I'LL STICK MY NECK" out right now and declare that statistics will prove that there are more people vacation bound toward the Pacific coast than in many a year. And that this movement westward will definitely be reflected in the greatest Winter vacation season that all of Southern California and particularly Palm Springs will experience during the 1955-56 season. "So ya come from Palm Springs, eh? Isn't it a resort by Los Angeles?" The double question came from a tobacco-chewing gasoline attendant as he was refilling the ever-diminishing petrol tank necessary in the operation of this here vehicle I am driving. "I heard about them billionaires that come to your home town. Must be a pretty place at that." I agreed with Chamber of Commerce pride.

"I WORKED DOWN IN Palm Springs all through one Winter season and I wish I was back there again," declared the waitress who placed before me a shriveled, grease dripping tenderloin steak; "the best piece of meat in all of South Dakota," she opined. Her boss never heard of The Desert Provision company, believe me! I busted my dental bridge chewing it.

I know that the thing behind the wheel of the automobile at the head of the long procession of cars must be of the human specie. At least 20 automobiles are trailing behind his car on the winding road. But he keeps his automobile rolling right down the middle of his lane, oblivious of all that is in front of him, to the side of him, right or left.

He has many opportunities, such as the courteous truck drivers do, to pull over and allow others to pass. But no, not he. After ten or fifteen miles the mechanical entourage behind begin to blow horns, take daring chances on passing, and do. Yours truly doesn't. Seen too many accidents. Head on collisions. Mangled bodies of old and young alike. But impatience rips and tears at one's insides.

WHAT KIND OF A MAN is it that would drive at 20 miles an hour. Or is he human? What makes a person like that tick? Has he a snout like the one on a pig? Are his eyes small and closely placed in his head? Is he the kind that would reach clean across a boarding house table for the gravy? Most important of all is he a social human being? Nothing — no description seems to fit.

Finally one car passes in safety with blasting horn born of intense hatred. Others follow. So do I but I slow down alongside of his snail-paced vehicle to look at him. He doesn't turn his head although he knows I am staring at him. He is all that I pictured him to be a pig whose very demeanor as he sits behind the wheel of his automobile, paints a picture that the world and this road—this highway which reads 60 miles per hour—"is my highway and the speed I set is the speed I desire for my automobile. It should be good enough for you too." Some day in the distant future this type of an individual will have his prototype in a wax museum. The inscription under his chin may well read: "The inhuman road-hog. Killer of people and babies."

Teenage Dance at Youth Center is Great Success

Ralph L. Watt, acting director of the Youth Center said that the Teenage dance staged there last week was a huge success with 106 teenagers attending and dancing to the music of Ted Ward and his orchestra.

The dance was sponsored by the Youth Center and the city recreation department. Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Watt and Howard Haddock, city recreation director. Every Wednesday evening there is a dance session to the music of the latest records. Hours are 8:30 to 10 and an invitation is extended to all teenagers to attend.

the great circulation enjoyed by The Desert Sun will be a success as a daily newspaper.

I remember when Phat and I argued about going daily more than five years ago. He won because Palm Springs wasn't ready then. The same discussion came up again two years ago and Publisher Ward Rishold started laying plans for the daily that is to be with the first issue October 4.

No daily newspaper can be successful without the cooperative support of the community in which it is published. The Desert Sun has enjoyed just that kind of cooperation for 27 years. Business people, residents, and winter guests have and are still urging the publication of a daily newspaper in Palm Springs.

The best small town daily with a metropolitan flair, in make-up, editorial content and wide interest in Palm Springs as a home town enterprise, keeping pace with the growth of our entire desert resort area. Will be rolling westward with great glee in about two weeks.

Santa Barbara Gets Data on Village from Alexander

Graham Alexander, well known Village radio announcer and singer, took himself to Santa Barbara, his former home, on a vacation trip last week. While there, according to Chet Holcombe, writer for the Santa Barbara News-Press, he said a lot of nice words about Santa Barbara—and then got in a lot more nice words about Palm Springs, all of which were dutifully published by the Channel City newspaper.

HE POPPED UP at a Santa Barbara city council meeting with official greetings from Palm Springs, made some tape transcriptions for presentation over his home station here, KCMJ, sang at a church service and then lost his wallet containing important papers and cash. Alexander gave Palm Springs some great plugs while there. It's the friendliest town, he said, relating that when he fell and broke his left knee Palm Springs friends spearheaded a campaign which raised $1001 to meet hospital bills.

BUT ASIDE from the friendliness of the Village, Alexander went on to point out the great progress here. He listed the three fine golf courses, more than 1,000 swimming pools, a steadily growing population, new shopping centers, the great rush of home-building, in fact, he was a walking Chamber—

Figures on Assessments Held Up for Aug. 2 Hearing

No figures on assessed valuations of Palm Springs or the Palm Springs Unified school district will be released until after a hearing August 2 before the state board of equalization on the latter body's ruling that the county's figures are 30 per cent too low.

County Assessor Frank Burchfield's office has compiled assessment figures for the city and school district which show a large gain over last year but since these figures are subject to upward revision of the state board's decision is final, no release of the totals will be made at present.

Yesterday it was indicated the state board might drop its plan to hike assessments here 30 per cent. If it does, assessment figures on which tax rates are based, may be available this weekend.

V. M. Hyde, county tax collector, said the delay in final assessment figures will hold up county tax bills, usually in October, may not be out until

Incorporation of Cabazon Still in 2 to 2 Deadlock

Supervisors continued deadlocked Monday on the question of calling an election on incorporation of Cabazon, 17 miles northwest of the Village, as a sixth class city.

Until Chairman William Jones of the board returns from his vacation August 20, there probably will be no decision on the matter, Cabazon residents were told. The four other members of the board have debated the issue every week for the past month and remain divided, two for and two against. Jones is expected to cast the deciding vote when he returns. Involved in the issue is the proposal to establish a draw poker in the community if it becomes a city and another plan to build a cement mill there by the same interests who were turned down on a plan to erect a mill nine miles from Palm Springs.

pretation of the law applying to seasonal resort communities such as Palm Springs. He said he and Hass are fighting only for the rights of permanent residents of Palm Springs area, people who have homes here but who may be laid off during the relatively quiet Summer months.

CLARIFICATION of the situation was sought after several local employees, out of work during two or three Summer months, complained that they were refused unemployment compensation although their employers had paid into the fund during the year.

The investigation started when it was charged that the Indio office had refused compensation and told the applicants to move to other localities where work in their field was available.

AT A MEETING here last week to air the situation, J. K. Bonham, director of the Indio office, said that he had to be guided by the law which holds that there has to be reasonable probability of a person finding work before he is eligible for unemployment compensation. In a reply to Burkett's letter, Hass wrote that he believes the Indio office of the Employment service has made several erroneous determinations in regard to applications of Village employees, temporarily out of work due to seasonal conditions.

"WE APPRECIATE your efforts in this situation," Hass wrote. "It will be a pleasure to meet a member of Mr. Rood's staff."

It is expected that the investigation of the situation here by the Los Angeles office of the department of unemployment will be made early this fall.

Villager Arrested After Auto Mishap

R. B. Preston, Jr., 34, of Palm Springs, faced a hearing in Indio as result of an automobile accident near Palm Desert Saturday night in which his car left the highway and rolled over on the soft shoulder. He was unhurt in the accident.

29 Palms Bank Closed as Large Shortage Found

Application has been made by Citizens National Trust and Savings Bank of Riverside for permission to open a branch bank at Twentynine Palms where the only bank of the community the Joshua Monument National bank was closed Monday after examiners found a $678,000 shortage in the books.

The Joshua Monument National Bank of Twentynine Palms was closed this week while officials of the Federal Deposit Insurance corporation were preparing to make payment in full on insured deposits following the discovery of a shortage of $678,000.

Roscoe D. Coon, 50, vice president and head cashier of the bank, was in jail on charges of embezzlement. He is specifically charged with making off with $10,000. He was picked up at Del Mar and taken to the San Diego county jail.

FBI AGENTS made the arrest on a complaint issued by Asst. U. S. Atty. R. H. Kinnison.

When the shortage was discovered, directors of the bank ordered it closed and it was taken into receivership by the federal deposit insurance agency.

All possible consideration will be given to the welfare of the community and to the bank's customers, FIDC officials said in Washington Monday.

OFFICIALS OF THE BANK, the only one in Twentynine Palms, site of a large U.S. Marine base, said that the people of the community were not alarmed or excited.

"Everyone knows the deposits are insured up to a $10,000 maximum for each depositor," was the word.

Joseph Wasserburger, president of the bank, said that no definite date can yet be announced for re-opening of the bank.

LOSES WALLET

Mrs. Walter Bayko of Fontana reported to police the loss of a wallet containing identification cards and $15 in cash.

17 Apply for Publicist Job at Chamber

Chamber of Commerce board of directors are scheduled to meet at 8 a.m. today in regular session with one of the principal items to be discussed, the selection of a new publicist to succeed Ray Corliss who last week resigned the position.

Corliss has joined the George Cameron Jr. organization. Jimmy Cooper, Chamber manager who recently returned from a Chamber of Commerce school at Stanford University had received a dozen applications up to yesterday morning, with five expected later in the day. They range from all over the state with several from Palm Springs.

No decision on the appointment is expected today according to Chamber President Harold West.

salary in the same pay scale as all teachers within the school district. The problem of getting teachers who are willing to teach five grades in one room often is a problem. The administration pointed out that a teacher hired to teach at that school could be placed in any school in the district. If the board of trustees decide that the school must be discontinued for the good of student health and learning, it is probable that the students of the Thousand Palms area will be sent to Cathedral City School. Consideration of a transportation schedule is now underway, to make available the finest for the students of the area, Dr. Mueller said.

TO ADD TO THE THINKING on this problem, I want to say these few words," said Dr. Mueller. "Organization of the school, teaching methods, classroom arrangements, and educational materials and supplies will continue to change as we come to know more of the nature of youth and the processes by which we learn. Adults who have previously accepted as best educational practice the quiet detention of youngsters in orderly rooms in somber, isolated classrooms may be startled to find our youth today involved in mobile and widely scattered endeavors. The classrooms of today are all over the community—not restricted to the four walls in a school house. If for instance, good citizenship attitudes is one of the goals of our schools, then student participation in Community Chest or Red Cross activities must be accepted as not only legitimate but critically important as part of the educational program of the school.

"HONEST, SINCERE, HARD-headed planning of education for the future is an inescapable responsibility of all of us. We can neither afford educational superficialities nor can we survive if we engage in them. The world of the future even more than the world of today will make rigorous demands of its youth. The schools which will open again this Sep-

To The Depositors of The Joshua Monument National Bank of Twentynine Palms

To meet the emergency which you now face, our Banning Office stands ready to assist in meeting your immediate cash requirements.

It is unfortunate that during the present circumstances checks drawn on the Joshua Monument National Bank cannot be negotiated. However, we can assure you that Federal authorities are now hard at work on the steps necessary to the early release of deposits up to the insured amount of $10,000. It is, of course, necessary that the records be carefully checked before the deposits are paid out.

We can also assure you that we are doing all in our power to restore banking services to the area on a permanent basis. Toward that end we have applied to the Comptroller of Currency for a permit to establish a branch of our bank at Twentynine Palms and a facility at the Marine Base. It is our intent to establish immediate service as soon as permission is received.

tember must be able to prepare these youth to face the responsibilities which they inherit. Whether or not the Thousand Palms School can do this job adequately and satisfactorily is part of the problem. We all must be willing to look beyond our personal considerations to work towards a better society for everyone."

School Budget Hearing Slated Next Thursday

Palm Springs Unified school district budget for the 1955-56 fiscal year will be aired at a public hearing at school board's office in Frances S. Stevens school at 7:30 p.m., next Thursday night.

The final budget as adopted calls for expenditures of $1,206,746 as compared with last year's budget of $1,171,397.

DESPITE the increase in the budget, the tax rate for the district is expected to be from 1½ cents to 2 cents lower per $100 assessed valuation, according to Dr. Wallace A. Mueller, district superintendent.

BECAUSE OF CHANGES sought by the state board of equalization in the basis for valuations, figures on local assessments have been delayed but it is unofficially reported that the school district's valuations will be $4 million dollars higher than last year.

One Hurt, Auto Wrecked in Try to Save Canine

Jay Oertle, 42, passenger in an automobile driven by W. A. Hawkins, 31, of 114 North Calle Encelia, was slightly injured and an unidentified dog was killed in an accident on East Ramon road, about a mile east of Sunrise way early Thursday morning.

The accident occurred when Hawkins swerved his car sharply to avoid hitting the dog and lost control of the vehicle. It ran into the soft sand beside the pavement and turned completely over, landing right side up on its wheels.

Clyde Anderson of Outpost Motel witnessed the accident and called assistance, Hawkins, however, was unhurt.

Oertle was taken to Desert hospital for emergency treatment.

The pick-up truck Hawkins was driving suffered an estimated $400 damage to the cab.

The dog, which caused the accident, was killed despite Hawkins' effort to miss him.

EDITOR'S CORNER

By Oliver B. Jaynes

CROCKETT DIES FOR FREEDOM — While spending some time in the mountains of North Carolina and the rolling hills of Tennessee I am reminded frequently that this is the green countryside which produced one of America's most colorful figures — Davy Crockett. My three grandchildren with their coonskin hats and their song about the King of the Wild Frontier makes me wonder what Davy Crockett would think if he were to return today to the land he loved so much and find that right now he is one of the most popular American heroes that ever lived.

All of this idolation by the younger set makes us wonder just what sort of a person Davy Crockett really was. The editor of the Times-News, here in Hendersonville, N. C., reminds us that the estimate of the man Crockett, and his career was considerably tinged with political sentiments of the time. Crockett had picked an issue with President Jackson which was not a very popular political course in Tennessee at the time. The bitter enemies of Crockett ridiculed his political judgment and "smeared him as a demagogue and unprincipled windjammer. He believed that he was driven from Congress by the influence and opposition of President Jackson and became convinced that his opportunity for service to his native state had been destroyed thereby so he resolved to go elsewhere and make a contribution to the advancement of a great cause. This is the atmosphere in which Davy Crockett found himself as one of the pioneer coonskin political figures and which brought about his determination to go to Texas.

Someone recently sent me a clipping of an editorial in the Sherman, Texas, Democrat, in which the editor said that he received a call from a young man who had identified himself only as Johnny and who wanted confirmation of the report that Davy Crockett had been killed at the Alamo. The boy, of course, wanted to be told that the report was not true. The temptation to give the boy a "YES, VIRGINIA, THERE IS A SANTA CLAUS" answer was hard to resist says the editor. One could talk around the facts and bear down strong on Davy's spirit living on in Texas until suddenly the whole country discovered it, says the Texas editor but, he adds, that's too far from the truth.

The truth is, he goes on to say, that the Davy Crockett phase was manufactured in Hollywood and is being kept rolling by smart commercial promotion. Everyone knows that the Crockett phase has caught on as nothing else has in many years and there is, of course, nothing wrong with that as the Texas editor points out so long as we keep it in perspective for the children who are enjoying it so much. It may even be accomplishing something worthwhile, at least in those children, and adults as well, who grasp its full meaning.

Here's what the Sherman - Democrat says is "the truth about Davy":

"You have to dig below the bear-killing, Indian-fighting surface of the story to get at the truth about Davy Crockett. He was more than that, and to see him as not more than a bold frontiersman in a coonskin cap is to do him an injustice."

Crockett was an American of the old original breed. He was not a compromising man, nor a comforting man. As a congressman, he would quite probably have shot anyone who tried to 'influence' him, and as an open-spaces man he was instinctively distrustful of crowds and cities and the men who composed them. He could hardly have been in the civilization we know today in Texas or elsewhere.

"But mostly, and above all, Crockett believed in freedom. It was total freedom he believed in, for himself and everyone else—freedom just the way the American revolutionists wrote it into their Constitution and fought for it, that a freedom which so many of us today want to define and limit by our own special rules."

"That's what the Davy Crockett story is about, Johnny. Davy believed in that freedom enough to die for it. He didn't die for Texas — there wasn't any Texas until he and several hundred other men died to create it. And he didn't die by chance, or because he had to — he knew what he was up against, and could have escaped it. We call him a hero, but he must have thought of himself clearly and simply as just a man who knew what he had to do, believing as he did."

"So, Johnny, he did die fighting in the Alamo, because he chose to die there, and you can see that his story wouldn't mean anything much without that ending."

"But that isn't quite the end of it, Johnny. Everything about old Davy and his life says the same thing he would say to you today if he could be back among the living and talk to you:

"Be free boy. Be the best man and the strongest man you can, but be your own man. That's all I was, or ever wanted to be."

Perhaps this will help some parents to explain to their children the reason that Davy Crockett really did die fighting at the Alamo and the reason why he was so willing to give his life for the cause in which he believed.

"HE'S GOT ONE OF THOSE SQUEEZE BOTTLES OF SHAVING CREAM JUST LIKE YOU'VE GOT, DAD!"

Designed by Walt Disney this turn-of-the-century gas buggy, authentically reproduced in every detail, is used to make deliveries of fresh milk and ice cream in Disneyland, recently opened near Anaheim, California. Carnation vice-president Hadley Stuart, grandson of the founder (in driver's seat) and William Backstrom (cranking) prepare to depart from the company's "Gay Nineties" ice cream parlor on Main street. The ancient buggy is equipped with wooden spokes, coal oil brass headlights and brass bulb-type horn.

AND HE LOVES IT!

Harry Oliver, editor of the Desert Rat Scrapbook is having himself a wonderful time this week.

He is deluged with fan mail and enjoying every minute of reading all of the letters he received after he was "on the air" over KFI Los Angeles radio station, last week.

KFI called Oliver on its regular weekly feature, "KFI Calling" and interviewed him over the air.

In telling of his past and his present, Oliver said that he never did anything which he did not have fun doing.

Brought out in the interview were his experiences with the United States Forestry service as far back as 1909, when he first acquired his interest in the lowly burro through his use of them on the job; his Hollywood background as a designer, rector and constructor of movie sets for such notables as Douglas Fairbanks, Mary Pickford and others, work which took him to Australia, South Africa and many other lands; and his present interest, the Desert Rat Scrap Book, a sprinkling of which, he admitted, is to be found in almost every country in the world with Australia leading in foreign subscriptions.

RENEW OLD FRIENDSHIPS

Driving to Idyllwild the other evening to "cool off" at a picnic supper were Miss Joan Wallace, Mrs. Edna G. Smith, Mrs. A. E. Nelson and Miss Elizabeth Nelson of Thousand Palms area.

They attended the Folk Dance festival at Idyllwild School of Arts and the Arts that evening — and the Nelsons renewed an old friendship. For on the staff of Idyllwild they found Larry Eisenberg of Nashville, Tenn., former head of recreation for the National Board of Education of the Methodist Church, and now a professor at Scarritt college in Nashville. He, with his wife, is the author of many recreational books and pam-

Following a brief stay at their home here they went to Elsinore where they also have a home, to remain the rest of the Summer.

Sunday Sermon on Love of God

The Sunday Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches is entitled "Love." The Golden Text from First John (4:8) reads, "He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love."

The Sermon speaks of the universal love of the Father for His children. A reference from First John declares: "In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him" (1 John 4:9).

In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy says, "Jesus mapped out the path for others." "In witness of his divine commission, he presented the proof that Life, Truth, and Love heal the sick and the sinning, and triumph over death through Mind not matter. This was the highest proof he could have offered of divine Love." (p. 38: 24-25); 54: 13-17).

WILLIAM C. TACKETT, president of the Center in Palm Springs, named to the board of directors of Rexall Drug company this week.

The Indian avenue property is owned by Mrs. Theresa Pevler and the Palm Canyon property by O. N. Ward. The latter proposal includes a plan to cut a new street through from Palm Canyon drive to Belardo road and will slice off a portion of the Youth Center property.

ACTING CITY MANAGER Shelby V. Langford and City Attorney Jerry Bunker conducted the meeting and questioned the property owners, about half of those in the proposed district who were present, on petitions asking creation of the districts.

No action was taken by the property owner at the meeting.

Jury with charges that Nathanson had used city stationery to further his candidacy in the second council district here.

An indictment was returned by the grand jury but the case was dismissed in Judge Waite's court. District Attorney Mackey then appealed the decision.

In a ruling handed down the appellate court reversed Judge Waite's decision but said:

"Our personal opinions are in sympathy with the action taken by the trial judge. Leaving political motives aside, it would seem that a prosecution in this case ought to be unnecessary. While it cannot be held, as a matter of law, that the ordering and use of this stationery for campaign purposes was not illegal, it was apparently done openly and in good faith and more as a result of ignorance than of fraudulent intent. The circumstances suggest that other and less drastic remedies were available which would have been more fair to everyone concerned."

Nathanson was represented in the case by Richardson and Henderson, Palm Springs legal firm.

Mitch's Offers Variety of Food

Mitch's Steak House in Cathedral City on Highway 111 this week launched an innovation—hickory broiled prime ribs any way that the patron wants them. Sitkoff Mitchell, proprietor of the popular cafe said this week.

He said that anyone with a craving for 100 per cent hickory broiled steaks, can satisfy that longing by driving to the eastern end of Cathedral City any evening.

The bill-of-fare, however, is not limited to beef, he said. Other items are available, with special dishes for children.

Stars Win Two to Stretch Lead in Little League

Strobe's Stars got back on the win track after being upset last week by the Boys Club and losing their first game in the Little League this season.

They won two games during the week, one from the Junior Police, 11 to 2 on the two-hit pitching of Lando Darling and then defeated the Boys Club 12 to 10. The Boys Club almost pulled another upset in this game as the Stars temporarily wobbled in the field and committed six errors.

The Boys Club remained in second place by handing Hathaway-Buick a 14 to 7 defeat. They scored their 14 runs on four hits, two of them home runs by Gilbert Jones and Ralph Lopez.

Junior Police also broke even for the week, winning Monday night from Hathaway-Buick by a 5 to 2 count in a tight game. A four-run outburst in the second inning clinched it.

Call Countywide Meeting on Zone, Building, Codes

Extension of the county building code to all unincorporated areas in the county and a comprehensive zoning law for the entire county will be discussed at a meeting at Riverside in Fall, supervisors declared last week.

All county organizations will be asked to participate in the meeting the board said.

Coachella Valley Advisory

Planning committee started the movement petitioning supervisors to extend the building code and zoning laws to all of the county.

At present the building code applies only to the more densely unincorporated areas and zoning is in effect in only a few communities.

Supervisor Homer Varner of this district is strongly in favor of the proposals but believes that a hearing of all interested organizations should first be held.

Congress Votes Funds for Flood Control Survey

Zone Six, covering the area from Desert Hot Springs to Cathedral City, said Monday that completion of the Whitewater River flood control survey, was assured by congress last week.

County Flood Control Engineer John W. Bryant said that $30,000 had been appropriated for the work in a message to Hillery. It had been estimated that $60,000 would be needed but the balance may be forthcoming later.

THE SURVEY was begun in 1940 but was interrupted by World War II. Army engineers are in charge of the work.

The survey includes the Whitewater river and all of its tributaries taking in Palm Canyon.

They will meet in Palm Springs at the Del-Hai-Mo hotel patio next Sunday to start their plans.

von, Tahquitz, Tachevah and all other canyons in the Palm Springs area.

Bryant was in Washington to support the measure to appropriate the money for completion of the survey.

HILLERY SAID that resumption of the survey, which is supported by the County Flood Control district of which this area is a part, and also the Coachella Valley County Water district, will come this Fall.

Reports from army engineers on the survey will assist in flood control in the local area and in flood protection.

The project covers plans for conservation and direction of flood waters from a wide area in the San Bernardino mountains, the San Geronimo region and the mountains and canyons west and south of Palm Springs.

It's the 4-Door Riviera—the stunning new hit of America's Hardtops

WHEN Buick introduced America's first hardtop—the Riviera—folks went for it in a big way, and fast.

They liked the Convertible look of this 2-door beauty—long, low and rakish. They liked the added security of the steel roof overhead. And they certainly liked the absence of center posts in the side window areas—which gave a completely unbroken view left and right.

People liked it all so well that, over the past six years, they made the Riviera the biggest-selling hardtop in the world, bar none. And it still is.

Now Buick has come up with another great advance in hardtops—the 4-Door Riviera—and it's a sensational hit.

Thrill of the year is Buick

It has everything the original 2-Door Riviera has—plus separate doors for rear-seat passengers, and a whole lot more room for them.

Rock-solid half-pillars on either side are what latch the front doors and hinge the rear ones. So there's no center post above the door line—and a completely open sweep of view to both sides.

And the roominess provided by this gorgeous new hardtop is really something—over 9 inches more hiproom and 5 inches more legroom in the rear.

Why don't you come see this brand-new kind of automobile that's heading up the parade of the hottest-selling line of Buicks in history?

That way you can also try what else is to be had here—Buick comfort, Buick power, Buick ride and handling and roadability—plus the electrifying action of Buick's Variable Pitch Dynaflo.*

Do it this week—tomorrow would be fine—and you'll see what record volume really means in the way of record-high trade-in deals.

*Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on ROADMASTER, optional at modest extra cost on other Series.

NOW—Biggest Trade-in Deals ever on the Biggest-Selling Buicks in History! Come in and see!

Howard Manor Being Readied for Fall Opening

Howard Manor, damaged by a fire in the dining room a week ago Monday, will be open as usual October 1, Bob and Andrea Howard, now vacationing in Honolulu informed friends here this week.

In a telephone call from Hawaii, the Howards asked that their staff and clientele be apprised of the fact that workmen are already busy remodeling the Manor Room, where the fire centered, and that the work will be completed well before the announced reopening date.

Bill White, manager of Howard Manor interrupted his vacation in Sheridan, Wyoming, to return to the Village to personally supervise reconstruction work at the popular hotel.

the heels of a wind and thunderstorm on the night of July 18, was confined to the Manor Room and an estimated $20,000 damage, all covered by insurance, was done. No other part of the hotel at 572 North Indian avenue was affected by the blaze.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Modern Science Finally Catches Up With Grandpa

I got put in my place the other night. Deserved it, too. My father-in-law said we were due for bad weather. "Birds are flying low," he reported. "That means a storm."

I started to josh with the old gentleman about being superstitious. Then my nephew Jim, on vacation from college, pipes up. "Grandad's right," he says.

"At least, that's what they say at school," Jim goes on. "The heavy air you get before a storm forces insects down low—so high-flying birds have to swoop along the ground if they want to eat."

From where I sit, there's probably sound reasoning back of most old sayings... back of anything people have learned to believe in. Take the idea of a stitch in time saving nine—sparing rods and spoiling children—of drinking hot milk, or a refreshing glass of beer, at bedtime. You may not hold with any of these beliefs yourself... but it's not smart to give them the "bird."

Palm Desert Follies to be Presented in Banning Bowl

"The Palm Desert Follies of '55," a variety show of gay music, dancing, comedy and novelties, will be presented in the Playhouse Bowl, Repplier Park, Banning this evening at 8 o'clock. This is the sixth performance in the "Evenings in the Park" programs presented during the Summer season. There is no admission charge.

This is the fourth season of the "Follies," an offshoot of the Palm Desert Little Theater and is directed by Clay Stearns, who also directs the productions of the Little Theater. Most of the cast are talented adult amateurs but there are some professionals in the cast, who, like Stearns, have retired from the arduous life of the professional theater to live in the desert. The cast of the Follies is recruited from all over the Coachella Valley from Palm Springs to Oasis.

Clay Stearns is a veteran of the theater. For many years he was featured in vaudeville, night clubs, and musical shows. He has played with such old time favorites as De Wolf Hopper, Irene Franklin, Chic Sale, and the Duncan Sisters. An interesting sidelight is the fact that he had a reunion a few days ago with Robert Kiernan who conducts a dancing school in Banning, and who will present his own program in the Playhouse Bowl on August 18. Stearns and Kiernan were dancing partners on the stage years ago.

This evening has been designated as Palm Desert Night at the Playhouse Bowl. Members of the Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce have been extended an invitation to be special guests of the evening by George Constantino, president of the Banning Chamber of Commerce.

The trio drove to Phoenix, Mesa, and Tucson where two years ago Wallington was associated with the Bank of Douglas. Then they went to Clare, Michigan, where he was formerly a vice-president of the Citizens State Bank. During the ten days in Michigan, Wallington visited several banks.

During Wallington's absence, his responsibilities for commercial and real estate loans at the Palm Springs office were assumed by vice-president and manager, Herbert Samson, aided by assistant manager, Don Goudry.

TO LET THE VILLAGERS KNOW THAT YOU'LL BE OPEN ALL SUMMER

THIS SIDE of The Sun

By Phat

In Winter we make with Fiesta. In Summer, why not Siesta?

That perennial old proposition—why not establish an official Siesta hour in Palm Springs, comes bobbing up again this week. For years I have advocated the idea, that of knocking off work during the middle or more heated portion of the day. Everybody go take a rest for two or three hours. The loss of time could be made up by just cutting out a couple of coffee breaks. A pair of one-hour coffee breaks a day would compensate for the time taken out for Siestas.

BUT, WHILE some firms and businessmen sporadically observed the Siesta hour, the idea was not taken up generally and I was all ready to skip it this year when I received a letter from Phil Siegel, manager of Ramon Drug, Siegel writes that the store closes every afternoon during July and August from 1 to 4 p.m. "Doctors who visit us say the idea is good," he wrote. "It's an idea (Siestas) which should be adopted by all businesses in the Village. We find that the welcome respite makes the day tolerable no matter what the temperature."

NOW HERE'S REAL support for the idea which has been boomed in these pieces for years. This is what I like. "We hope the idea (of Siestas) will become constitutional in Palm Springs," Siegel continued. "It can do nothing but a lot of good for all of us. For, after all, if ALL stores are closed during specific hours, Villagers will necessarily relax comfortably at home and shop during the less torrid hours. Our community will benefit immeasurably from this simple hot-weather prescription." Thanks for the support, Mr. Siegel.

COMES ANOTHER POSTCARD from Bill Rashall, heading eastward by automobile for midwestern points on vacation. This time he got the address and the message in the right places. He writes that he's been driving along above the 4000-foot level for some time. "Still above 4,000 feet," he says on the card postmarked Yellowstone Park. Which caused one of his colleagues in the office to remark: "Keeping his head in the clouds." Bill also writes that he is going to try some fishing. If they elude his hook and he tells them about it, they are going to think they are dogfish.

DURING THE RECENT storm lightning struck near a local home. Which caused the proprietor to remark that if he ever wants to sell it he has a good talking point. "Safe from lightning—it never strikes twice in the same place" . . . Next week, according to my book of special days and weeks, is National Relaxation Week. August 2 to 8. Which makes it perfect. For I think I shall take the second part of my bifurcated vacation during that time. . . . See what's going on where the turf gets acquainted with the surf . . . Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Crockett are leaving Saturday on a belated 30th-wedding anniversary trip. They are going to Buffalo. Crockett said that after 30 years he is going to take a look at Niagara Falls.

EDDIE GUTMAN, member of Palm Springs police department, works the night shift. So that's why his reason for being unable to come to work the other night is sort of puzzling. Says he couldn't show up because he was so badly sun-burned . . . Since Hildy Crawford is on vacation I have been struggling along as a sort of poor substitute social editor. Now I know what she's up against. Received a five-page description of a wedding the other day and the name of the bride was not revealed until the fourth page bottom. Usually it's the non-important bridegroom who is sometimes forgotten until as an afterthought. . . . But since writing society news they call me Cholly Olancha around the office. That's the street I live on.

THOSE REPORTS of disappearing garden hoses are still coming in. What I want to see is a report from some Villager telling of a garden hose coming OUT of the ground. . . . By the way, what's become of those mysteriously cracking windshields? That was the rage before garden hoses started burrowing . . . There's a daily paper nearer the coast where I bet there is a lot of bellowing going on. It's one of the staunchest Republican papers in the citrus belt. But the other day they ran a picture from Geneva in which President Ike was the central figure. And this god old GOP standby called him President Roosevelt in the caption.

And in a house magazine for an automobile finance company, I read this item: "Women take to good-hearted men—also from."

Visitor Wounded in Odd Accident

Pat Miller, 44, of Santa Ana took a painful moment of a weekend trip to the desert home with him this week.

He was wounded in the thigh in an odd accident at the home of Russell Humphrey, where he was visiting in Cathedral City Sunday morning.

Miller was taking a rifle from a rack in the home when he accidentally knocked down a 22-caliber target pistol which discharged as it struck the floor.

The bullet wounded Miller in the left thigh. He was taken to Desert hospital where the wound was dressed and he was released.

Leo Makes Police News Second Time

"Leo" made the police blotter again Monday.

"Leo," by the way, is an imposter. She is a lady turtle, or perhaps that should be a lady tortoise, but she masquerades under the masculine name of "Leo" which is painted boldly on her armor.

She was found wandering along the highway after the first rain last week and turned over to police who, in turn, entrusted her to John Thomas, humane officer.

But "Leo" apparently is not to be trusted.

For Monday, Barbara Sarup called police to inform them that the turtle (tortoise) was ambling around the neighborhood of the Sarup home, 1748 Mesa drive.

The police blotter did not detail the latest disposition of "Leo's case."

Chester, Merrick, Named to DHS Board

Harry Chester and Joseph L. Merrick have been appointed to the board of the Desert Hot Springs County Fire and Protection district by board of supervisors. They succeed Al Young and Julius Nathanson, resigned.

Highway Picture Brighter Says Commissioner Guthrie

James A. Guthrie, publisher of the San Bernardino Sun and veteran member of the California Highway Commission, told a gathering of Riverside county highway committee men Thursday at Mission Inn, Riverside, that prospects are bright for solving the county's highway problems.

He said that the money needed to take care of the situation may be forthcoming from federal aid grants soon.

EARL HOUGH, local Chamber of Commerce liaison committee member on the Associated Chamber of Commerce, headed a local delegation to the luncheon which was under the auspices of the County Board of Trade.

Several other Palm Springs civic and council leaders, were present at the meeting.

Guthrie said that Riverside and San Bernardino counties have more miles of interstate highways than many entire states and will be aided greatly if the federal highway program is adopted.

HIGHWAYS 60-70-99 in Riverside county will benefit most in this area, he indicated.

The Palm Springs delegation to the meeting was interested most in two projects—completion of the freeway route through Banning and a grade separation at Garnet of the new freeway and Indian avenue.

Both projects were given encouragement by Guthrie.

B. D. POWELL, assistant county road commissioner, presented a list of projects county Chambers of Commerce are seeking.

Among those of local interest were: Conversion of Highways 60-70-99 between Thousand Palms and Indio into a four-way expressway.

Realignment of curves and shoulder widening of Highway 111 between Palm Springs and

Burglar Ignores Furs, Jewelry

When Peggy Bull, 412 Avenida Hokana, returned to her home from a shopping trip, she noticed a clock which she kept on the top of a bureau was missing.

Investigating further, she found other items, including a traveling case, a gold mesh wallet and gold coin purse, were also gone.

Furs and jewelry in the same room were not taken.

Indio.

GRADE SEPARATION of Indian avenue and the new 60-70-99 freeway at Garnet. This is one of the chief projects of the local Chamber.

A new highway between the low and high desert areas near Desert Hot Springs.

Carnation Corner

Today is "Cottage Cheese Day" in Carnation Corner! Which means I have lots of new ideas for you about this oh-so-popular cheese. But first I want to say just a word about the nourishment of Carnation Cottage Cheese. Ounce for ounce, Carnation Cottage Cheese has exactly as much protein as choice beef. It's also a very good source of calcium and phosphorus. And it has fewer calories than any other standard kind of cheese.

Now let's talk about Carnation Cottage Cheese and your husband. Is he "salad shy," as so many men are? If so, I'll just bet he loves this new

Cheese and Vegetable Salad

- 1 package lime-flavored fruit gelatin
- 1 1/2 cups hot water
- 1 cup (1/2 pint) Carnation Cottage Cheese
- 1 cup peeled chopped cucumber
- 1 tablespoon grated onion
- 1/4 teaspoon salt

Combine hot water and gelatin; cool until thickened and syrupy (about 15-20 minutes). Add remaining ingredients. Place in 8-inch ring mold and chill until firm (1-2 hours). Unmold by dipping in hot water for a few seconds and turn out on salad greens. Fill center of cottage cheese ring with sliced fresh tomatoes, chopped celery and carrot slices.

The case of the crooked cucumber

Did you know cucumbers once wore "glasses"? It seems a certain Mr. George Stephenson (who helped develop the 19th century steam locomotive) was very unhappy because his cucumbers grew crooked. So he had several glass cylinders made, which he put over the growing cucumbers. They grew perfectly straight, and soon cucumber glasses were in great vogue among gardeners. Today, horticulturists have developed cucumbers which grow nice and straight all by themselves!

MORE COTTAGE CHEESE IDEAS

SPREADS and "DUNKS." Use Carnation Cottage Cheese with flavorings such as chopped green onions, parsley, lemon juice. ENTREES. Use it for creamy-rich texture in buffet salads, gelatin salads and casseroles. DESSERTS. Try Carnation Cottage Cheese in your favorite recipe for cheese cake and cheese pie. Or with fresh or frozen fruits, topped with a dash of lime or lemon juice.

REASON ENOUGH!

Why, you ask, is Carnation Cottage Cheese always so smooth and creamy? Because Carnation uses three whole quarts of milk to make just one pound. And then for good measure, adds fresh cream!

SUMMER PARTY

The Shadow Mountain club was a gay spot Saturday evening. A "Day at School" party brought a big group of guests for an evening of fun — from the moment the "kids" entered, received and signed their schedule cards, the "School Daze" spirit prevailed. The costumes were in keeping and the prize for the best costume was given to Bob and Helen Coates.

Food was served a la school cafeteria and the evening ended with an excellent program. Saturday, August 13 will be the date for the Mid-Summer Madness gathering at the club. The idea will be along the lines of being "crazy with the heat."

WIFE OF GUIBERSON WINS DIVORCE BATTLE

Samuel A. Guiberson, 82, who unsuccessfully fought to establish a cement mill northwest of the city and who is now reported interested in building one at Cabazon, was divorced by his 26-year-old wife Thursday in Los Angeles superior court.

Joan Mann Guiberson charged the wealthy oil and cement man with maintaining a lively interest in other women but objecting strenuously against her slightest interest in any other man, she testified.

MRS. GUIBERSON, once a professional dancer, testified before Judge Lloyd S. Nix that soon after their three-day honeymoon in Las Vegas (which, she said, cost him $5000) she discovered that she had become a prisoner as well as a bride.

She said that he wouldn't let her out of his sight and that she was a prisoner in a $1,000 a month Hollywood hotel suite. She testified that on occasions, both in Hollywood and in Dallas, Texas, where he had many interests, he often struck her, accusing her of having kept appointments with other men.

THE CASE, which started out as a bitter battle, ended quickly in the afternoon session when she agreed to drop her demands for $2995 a month alimony and agreed to settle for $5,000 cash, payable by the end of the month. She conceded, under cross examination, that she had received $7450 in cash, furs valued at $6,000, a Cadillac and a half interest in valuable Texas oil wells. Under the settlement, she keeps the gifts.

GUIBERSON, who became prominent here a few years ago when he started a controversy which became county-wide when he sought to construct a cement mill on Highway 111 a few miles northwest of the Village, has been married three times. His first wife died and the second two divorced him. Supervisors granted him a zoning permit for his proposed mill near Southern Pacific depot a few years ago and the matter went to a county-wide referendum election instituted by desert area residents.

HE WON THIS ELECTION but failed to take advantage of his victory and did not start construction of the cement mill. Desert area residents later were successful in having the zoning permit for the cement mill rescinded by the county
